Perishable Theatre Presents a Special Edition Live Bait Show:

LIVE BAIT: STORIES OF DEATH, NEAR-DEATH AND SURVIVAL

Friday, November 27th at 8pm. All seats $5

At Perishable Theatre, 95 Empire Street, Providence, RI 02903

Death is a depressing subject. Death is a downer. Why focus on Death when Life, in all its glory, is begging to be embraced? Well, there are those who say that the closer we get to Death, the more we truly appreciate Life. Ask anyone who has been there, face to face with the Grim Reaper, and they'll tell you.

And tell you, they will, at Live Bait. Live Bait is proud to present an evening of extraordinary and true stories of death, near-death and survival from special guest storytellers in the hopes of bringing us a more profound appreciation of what we have, what surrounds us, and what we share every moment of our lives.

Guest Storytellers include:

Christopher Johnson on life and death in a gang

Kevin Broccoli on life and death during the holidays

Priscilla Galligan on life and death in the ER

Jon Paul Guinn on military autopsies

...and more!

Don't miss this very special edition of Rhode Island Monthly Best of RI winner for "Best Storytelling for Grown-ups," Providence Phoenix Best of 2009 Editors' Pick for "Best Excuse to Yammer On and On" and Motif Magazine Theatre Award winner for "Best Audience Participation Show."

LIVE BAIT: STORIES OF DEATH, NEAR-DEATH AND SURVIVAL is hosted by Phil Goldman, with musical accompaniment by Jerry Gregoire.

8:00pm Friday, November 27th, 2009
