Anna Bella Eema by Lisa D'Amour

October 16-November 7

When their trailer park is slated for demolition because of interstate highway expansion, Irene refuses to leave. In this moment of crisis, her ten-year-old daughter Anna Bella creates a new girl out of the mud behind their trailer home. This mud-girl helps Anna Bella and Irene channel the supernatural and face the life they must live in the world outside their trailer home. A richly imagined tale of a fierce mother/daughter bond, spoken and sung by three women.

Great for people interested in Urban Mythology, Modern Fairy Tales, Ghost Stories and trailer parks

Hedwig and the Angry Inch

April 16-May 9

Written by John Cameron Mitchell
Music and lyrics by Stephen Trask

Hedwig, born a boy named Hansel in East Berlin, fell in love with an American G.I. and underwent a sex-change operation in order to marry him and flee to the West. Unfortunately, nothing worked out quite as it was supposed to - years later, Hedwig is leading her rock band on a tour of the U.S., telling her life story through a series of concerts at Bilgewater Inn seafood restaurants. Her tour dates coincide with those of arena-rock star Tommy Gnosis, a wide-eyed boy who once loved Hedwig... but then left with all her songs.

Great for people interested in Identity Politics, Star-Crossed Lovers, and Rock and Roll
